> ABOUT US

Our philosophy is simple: to evolve the way brands get their messages through by continuing to exist at the forefront of innovative design, emerging technologies and social purpose within the out-of-home space.

For more than three decades, we have delivered innovative, efficient and effective outdoor advertising campaigns, utilizing both traditional and non-traditional approaches.

What began in 1984 with outdoor advertising opportunities throughout the New Jersey, Philadelphia and New York markets, quickly evolved into one of the fastest-growing outdoor advertising companies in the nation.

Today, we are considered one of the most progressive companies of its kind, bringing new products and opportunities to the most desired markets in the United States.

We provide an unmatched depth of knowledge, experience and understanding when it comes to all things out-of-home, and remain committed to the vision, values and dedication to outstanding customer service that we began with so many years ago.

STATIC MEDIA

> BULLETINS

Bulletins are one of the most impactful standard-sized formats available in outdoor advertising. Located primarily along high-traffic roadways, their scale and placement help attract the attention of commuters. When customized with extensions and/or embellishments, these already eye-catching displays draw even more attention.

- San Francisco

> POSTERS

Able to penetrate dense urban and suburban areas, including secondary arteries where other media may be limited, posters reach target audiences where they live, work, and play. Posters are often used for mass-market coverage, providing the presence needed to build brand awareness. From call-to-action to directionals to branding, posters offer a lot of versatility at an affordable price point.

> BUS SHELTERS

Bus shelter advertising provides 24-hour visibility to both pedestrian and vehicular traffic. Often bought in conjunction with other forms of outdoor advertising, bus shelters can be used for point-of-purchase, directional or micro-marketing campaigns. Our strategically located shelters offer advertisers the ability to reach specific demographic segments or deploy 'showing' programs for mass-market reach.

Markets

- Philadelphia DMA

> WALLSCAPES

Wallscapes generate presence and impact few media can equal. They accommodate a wide variety of unusual creative sizes and shapes, and provide high exposure and visibility to both vehicular and pedestrian traffic. Typically located in downtown districts, wallscapes often become landmarks in a city.

> VERTACULARS

GARDEN STATE PARKWAY, NJ

Positioned at the entry and exit points of the Garden State Parkway's six rest areas, our vertaculars offer a rare opportunity to reach large-volume audiences along the Parkway's 173-mile length, where virtually no other out-of-home media exists.

> KIOSKS

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ

Eighteen-foot-tall and beautifully backlit, our kiosks command the attention of pedestrians walking the famous Atlantic City Boardwalk. These state-of-the-art, eye-level displays are strategically positioned along key areas of the boardwalk to help advertisers capture the attention of consumers as they're in a relaxed, yet captive, state of mind.

> TRESTLES

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ

Stretched across three lanes of traffic on both the inbound and outbound sides of the Atlantic City Expressway, our backlit trestle displays are truly one-of-a-kind. These large-format displays stay illuminated from dusk till dawn, reaching thousands of commuters daily. Their scale and location offer a uniquely memorable canvas for branded messaging.

DIGITAL MEDIA

> DIGITAL BULLETINS

Digital bulletins are one of the most flexible formats of outdoor advertising. Brands can use dynamic content, conditional copy and RSS feeds to reach consumers with highly targeted, contextually relevant messaging. Ads can be changed weekly, daily or even hourly, and within conditional parameters such as time & temperature. Digital bulletins can be purchased by specific location, or a network of multiple locations, for targeted or mass-market reach.

TRANSIT MEDIA

> COMMUTER TRANSIT

NY, NJ, PA, BAL, DC, MIA

Used to reach motorists and pedestrians in virtually any urban and suburban location, transit media offers a unique canvas with which to engage audiences. It's a high recall medium thanks to its unparalleled reach and frequency. With both traditional media and signature products, transit advertising is one of the most effective forms of out-of-home, providing value and variety within a campaign.

> DOUBLE DECKERS

PHL, NYC

Double deckers break through the clutter of city cores, reaching locals and visitors as they travel to/from restaurants, museums, hotels, shops, sports venues, convention centers and other attractions. These 'rolling billboards' are one of the most impactful forms of transit advertising, providing a captivating medium with which to reach and influence audiences.

> WRAPPED TAXIS

Wrapped taxi vans put advertisers in front of millions of shore-goers from Memorial Day to Labor Day (and beyond, if requested). They reach riders, pedestrians and vehicular traffic along the 130-mile stretch of the Jersey Shore and the affluent villages of the Hamptons. These fully wrapped taxi vans intercept swells of locals and relaxed vacationers as they shop, dine and enjoy various attractions.

> COUNTY SHUTTLES

New Jersey

Shuttle media provides excellent coverage in areas where other outdoor advertising is restricted or limited. Like other forms of transit advertising, shuttle media is a great way to saturate markets and sub-markets with bold, colorful creative that will make an impact. With various display types available, shuttle advertising is a creative and cost-effective means to reach intended audiences.
